

INTRO & INFO

Here is nearly all the LIS art I drew between 2015-2016. I put together this PDF to archive my work from that period because over the last few years it's all become kind of scattered online. I've deleted a lot of things I've posted on social media, so not all the art you see here is online any more. And while not 100% of my fanart is even in this PDF, it does include the vast majority of it.

CREDITS

Some pics here have urls in them and I don't have a version without the urls, so please try to ignore that.

Note: You may see pics with the url yuriandtea.tumblr.com in them. That url is outdated, it's not my blog any more. My Deviantart url is correct but I don't really go there much these days.

Writing credits: Some comics or art I've made have been written by other people. You can see the credits of each writer on the page where the related comics appear.

REPOSTING MY ART

- Please credit me as @theMaarika and/or include the url of my website: maarika.com if you repost my art.
- You can share/redistribute this PDF if all the credits remain intact.
- And because I've seen that happen, do not sell my art. My art is for personal non-profit use only. Thank you!

These were all the inktober pics I did in 2015. I started with just black and white on some cool textured paper but then I switched to white paper and decided to color all the following drawings anyway.
